Introducing Panama

Connecting the Pacific Ocean with the Caribbean Sea and South America with Central America, Panama forms a kind of crossroads for anyone travelling within the region, and from coast to coast via the infamous Panama Canal, an incredible feat of engineering. But there is so much more to Panama when you delve beneath its surface. Pacific surf and wild, idyllic islands dominate its coastline, while the centre boasts a rich rainforest ecosystem, home to an incredible array of animal and bird species. Add its diverse mix of cultures and rich history and you have a truly fascinating destination which is little explored compared to some of its neighbours. Whether you're a surfer, birdwatcher, historian or beach fanatic, Panama certainly won't disappoint.

How to Get to Panama

You can travel overland from Costa Rica or sail from Cartagena, Colombia as part of a longer Central or South American itinerary. If you arrive by plane, you'll fly into Panama City's Tocumen airport. Flight time from the UK is approx. 14-17 hours, via Europe or the US. If you're coming from the US, you can travel from various major cities – flight times are approx. 5-7 hours for direct flights. Travel around by private transfers or jump on a 'chicken bus' with the locals. These colourful old US school buses give an authentic flavour of local life.

When & Weather – Panama

Panama has a warm tropical climate and temperatures remain constant all year round. The Dry Season falls between December and March; the Green Season is between April to November, but the rainfall is normally concentrated into heavy but short afternoon downpours. Humidity can be high in the rainy season. Temperatures range between 24°C (75°F) and 32°C (90°F).

Who will Panama Appeal To?

The country's stunning natural landscapes are best suited to: Active travellers - Botanists - Wildlife lovers - Beach lovers - Photographers - Honeymooners - Solo travellers - Water-sports lovers - Families.

Accommodation

Eco nature lodges and fincas, beach hideaways and upscale boutique hotels in Panama City.

Off The Beaten Path

Hike through cloud forest and past Baru Volcano in Amistad National Park. There's thrilling white-water rafting here too. Guna Yala (also called San Blas) is an archipelago of 400-odd tiny coral atolls, territory of the indigenous Guna people. Many are uninhabited, idyllic palm-strewn sandbanks. Don't miss Isla de las Estrellas, where starfish line the shallows. There's pounding surf in Santa Catalina while nearby Isla Coiba is dubbed 'the Galapagos of Panama' thanks to its incredible marine life.

Wildlife

Humpback whales arrive in the Gulf of Chiriqui between July and October to give birth, having travelled up the Pacific from Antarctica. You'll see Bryde's, minke and pilot whales, and large numbers of dolphins. Sea turtles nest on Isla Bastimentos' Playa Larga between April and September. This region is also home to sloths, howler monkeys and crocodiles. Birders can look out for the resplendent quetzal in the highlands, and harpy eagles in the Darien. Almost 1,000 different bird species span this tiny country.

Panama Experiences you shouldn't miss

Wander through Casco Antiguo in Panama City's old town. Kayak in the Panama Canal. Visit a coffee farm near Boquete to learn the bean-to-cup process. Island hop around Bocas del Toro; we particularly love the empty Isla Solarte.

Giving back

Stay at El Otro Lado Private Retreat in Portobelo and get involved with the Portobelo Foundation, which is committed to improving the quality of life of the community through music, dance, art and craftsmanship.

Travelling Responsibly

At LiNGER we firmly believe that in travel we can do more to help protect our planet.

We take our responsibilities to the environment, local communities, customers, suppliers, partners and employees very seriously and our intention is to constantly review our policies and strive to make improvements where we can.

We offer the opportunity to Give Back by partaking in a meaningful activity in an area that matters to you or where you may have a skillset.

This could be as simple as a beach clean in Sri Lanka to help protect our oceans or caring for orphaned sloths in a wildlife sanctuary in Costa Rica.

LiNGER longer on a sabbatical and devote time to teaching in a village school in Nicaragua or help with a conservation project researching plant species in the Amazon. LiNGER and Enrich Life through Travel.
