Introducing Indonesia

As a kaleidoscope of cultures, languages and landscapes spanning 17,000 islands, it's hard to pinpoint what makes Indonesia special but beautiful surf beaches, world-class dive spots, wildlife rich rainforest and active volcanoes make up a chunk of its highlights.

Java is the beating heart, where people and cultures define every experience, from adventures across the patchwork of rice paddies to the capital city, Jakarta, and the impressive temple of Borobudur. Perhaps better known are the islands of Bali and Lombok, famed for their beaches, while the white sands and coral reefs of the Gili Islands attract snorkellers and divers in abundance.

Indonesia also offers unforgettable wildlife encounters - watch orangutans and macaques along the banks of the rivers and lumbering komodo dragons emerging from the trees. Whether exploring one island or ten, you're bound to have a reason to return.

How to Get to Indonesia

You can travel here by ferry from Malaysia and Singapore. Most will fly here though and arrive at Jakarta (Sukarno-Hatta) or Bali (Ngurah Rai), Indonesia's 2 busiest airports. There are other international hubs too. Direct flights from the UK take approx. 15 hours; from the US, expect around 18 hours.

Once here, you can island hop by ferry or a domestic flight. Within the islands themselves, expect to travel by bus, boat or train. Delays are common, whichever means of travel you choose, so keep your schedule flexible.

When & Weather – Indonesia

The whole archipelago is tropical, generally hot, humid and sunny. As a rule of thumb, May to October is the Dry Season and November is wetter.

Temperatures range between 17°C (75°F) and 33°C (62°F).

Who will Indonesia Appeal To?

Travelling Responsibly

At LiNGER we firmly believe that in travel we can do more to help protect our planet.

We take our responsibilities to the environment, local communities, customers, suppliers, partners and employees very seriously and our intention is to constantly review our policies and strive to make improvements where we can.

We offer the opportunity to Give Back by partaking in a meaningful activity in an area that matters to you or where you may have a skillset.

This could be as simple as a beach clean in Sri Lanka to help protect our oceans or caring for orphaned sloths in a wildlife sanctuary in Costa Rica.

LiNGER longer on a sabbatical and devote time to teaching in a village school in Nicaragua or help with a conservation project researching plant species in the Amazon. LiNGER and Enrich Life through Travel.
