Introducing Brazil

Covering an area the size of the USA, it's not surprising that Brazil has something to offer every kind of traveller. Beyond the glitz and glamour of its main cities, a raw and unrelenting energy shows a Brazil that is proud of its cultural heritage, whether Afro-Brazilian, carioca or tribal. When it comes to music and culture, there is more to Brazil than carnival celebrations and sizzling samba beats - soak in the soothing sounds of forro and lose yourself in addictive percussion in Bahia's state capital, Salvador.

From the depths of the Amazon Rainforest to the sweeping sand dunes of the northeast and glittering waters of the Emerald Coast, a land of staggering natural beauty and biodiversity awaits. Spot jaguars roaming the Pantanal wetlands and observe tropical birds soaring through treetops in the Atlantic rainforest, watch as masses of water plummet down the river at Iguassu Falls and hike through table top mountains in the valleys of Chapada Diamantina. And when talking about nature, it would be rude not to mention Brazil's beaches. Along the coast you'll find a beach for every day of the year, ranging from lively Copacabana to the pristine protected sands of Fernando de Noronha and beyond.

How to Get to Brazil

There are 500+ airports in Brazil. Unless you come overland, you'll likely fly into Rio, Sao Paolo, Salvador or Foz do Iguacu.

There are direct flights from the UK, but many go via Europe or US. Direct flights from the UK take approx. 12 hours; from the US they range from 9-12 hours.

Once here, zip about between domestic hubs by plane (all cities have airports and all towns have at least an airstrip), or travel by luxury coach (leitos), but be warned, distances are enormous.

When & Weather – Brazil

The weather is diverse, as there are 5 climatic regions: equatorial, tropical, semi-arid, highland tropical and subtropical. In general, the north is warm and humid;

the south dryer, with an average daytime temperature of 25°C across the country. The so-called 'Rainy Season' is November to May and 'Dry Season' June to October, but it's really a year-round destination and you're likely to experience all weathers over a 2-week period. Daytime temperatures range between °18C (°65F) and °32C (°86F).

Who will Brazil Appeal To?

The country's cultural attractions, wildlife, joie de vivre and stunning natural landscapes are best suited to: Adventure seekers - Active travellers - Wildlife enthusiasts - Beach lovers - Solo travellers - Photographers - Honeymooners - Culture Vultures - Families

Accommodation

We can arrange stays in luxury city hotels, beachside cabanas, friendly guesthouses, eco jungle lodges and boutique B&Bs.

Off The Beaten Path

Head to Olinda for Carnival, where you'll be swept up in an effervescent whirl of frevo music and bonecos (enormous papier mache figures).

Admire the modernist architecture in UNESCO-listed Brasilia
Jericacoara's virgin beaches are world-class in their beauty.

Wildlife

Listen for howler monkeys and spot rare golden lion tamarins and bald uakari in the Amazon.

Watch pink river dolphins leap as you zip along the Rio Solimoes from Manaus.
The capybara lives in the Pantanal, along with spectacled caiman and jaguars.

Brazil Experiences you shouldn't miss

Rio. Corcovado, Sugar Loaf Mountain, cool Copacabana: it's the stuff of legend.
Take a boat trip past the Devil's Throat, the largest of the Iguazu Falls.

Travelling Responsibly

At LiNGER we firmly believe that in travel we can do more to help protect our planet.

We take our responsibilities to the environment, local communities, customers, suppliers, partners and employees very seriously and our intention is to constantly review our policies and strive to make improvements where we can.

We offer the opportunity to Give Back by partaking in a meaningful activity in an area that matters to you or where you may have a skillset.

This could be as simple as a beach clean in Sri Lanka to help protect our oceans or caring for orphaned sloths in a wildlife sanctuary in Costa Rica.

LiNGER longer on a sabbatical and devote time to teaching in a village school in Nicaragua or help with a conservation project researching plant species in the Amazon. LiNGER and Enrich Life through Travel.
